

PRODUCT ENDORSEMENT: Ingenico Group

April 2011

To All Users, OEM's and Distributors:

This memorandum serves as verification that, in an effort to accommodate their customers as a quality, full service vendor, Ingenico encourages and promotes a proprietary labeled KICTeam cleaning card as part of their standard business operations. The cards are included in their new product packaging, on their web site and in online videos.

"Ingenico has tested and validated the effectiveness and efficiency of cleaning cards. The KICTeam's proprietary Waffletechnology® cleaning cards* provided the most cost effective and safest solution available." - Ingenico Press Release, April 2011
